Missouri Board of Probation and Parole Announces Management Appointment

Missouri Board of Probation and Parole Chair Steve Long announced the appointment of Cora Haynes as the District Administrator at District EP in St. Louis, Missouri.

"Haynes' 10 years of probation and parole experience will be a valuable asset in her new position," said Regional Administrator Nancy McCarthy. "Her administrative and leadership abilities will not only benefit District EP but will benefit the region and the state, as well."

Haynes began her career with the Division of Probation and Parole in 1998 as a Probation and Parole Officer at District 8-Central in Olivette, Mo. She was promoted to unit supervisor in 2005 at District EC in St. Louis City where she quickly established herself as the point person with the MERS Residential Facility Program and the AltCare Program. Haynes leadership ability and enthusiasm, working with our community partners within these and other programs has proven beneficial not only to the community but to staff and clients as well. Haynes is viewed as an expert in program initiatives in the St. Louis area.

Haynes graduated from Southeast Missouri State University with a Bachelors Degree in Criminal Justice. She also has a Bachelors Degree in Political Science and a Master's Degree in Criminology from Indiana State University.

###

The District EP Office provides supervision services to over 2,000 clients living in St. Louis City. Fifty-nine staff is assigned to the office.

Haynes will also oversee the St. Louis Project working closely with the St. Louis Metropolitan Police

"Haynes has a well established history of positive performance and leadership within the Missouri Department of Corrections. I am confident that she will excel in this position to the benefit of the District EP, community and the staff assigned to that office."
